TRACK AND STABLE.

Charles Dwyer, the son of the famou Surfman, has taken to bookmaking. If the old gentleman, who makes heavy plunges now and then, should run afoul of the young man when he sees a good thing, there would certainly be lively times in the Dwyer family.

The question as to which is the greates race horse, Joe Patchen, Robert J., or John R. Gentry, seems to be open yet. When these famous pacers get together one gets so much the better of the other that the beaten ones cannot be rated as at their best. and no one is satisfied with the result. So Chicago: so it was with the Patchen and Robert J. races at Cleveland and Buffalo, and so it was with the race at Fleetwood on

The great Western sprinter, O'Conne that recently broke the world's record, 1:12 3-4 for six furlongs, has bee twice within a few days by the filly Linda. at St. Louis. The second race was 7 1-2 furlongs. Linda carried 95 pounds, and went the route in 1:34 1-2, within one quarter of a second of the record, made by Leo H. at Nashville in 1888, with the same weight up that Linda carried. The performance of the mare must be regarded as rearkable, because the track at St. Louis was heavy and slow.

Speaking about W. K. Vanderbilt's runming horse venture, a friend is credited with saying that he is sick of the scandal and gossip of the Newport set and wants to get away from it. Hereafter Mr. Vanderbilt intends to spend more of his time in Paris, where he is popular, and where he full of his movements. He has bought the borses merely to help him to amuse himself abroad. Toledo, Aug. 31.-A finish fight be-tween George Campbell, of Detroit, and Frank Roy, of New York, was pulled off in the rooms of the Toledo Athletic Club last evening.

The contest was for an unlimited n of rounds, but it larted but one. The men started the fighting at the found of the gong, and it was just five minutes before the bell sounded to close the round that Campbell received an ugly upper-cut that knocked him completely out. an interesting game at that. Crooks is hardly fit to play, but he is anxious to do the best he can to help the home team along, and has volunteered to work in both games. Mercer and Jack bad a talk this evening. 'I'll tell you what I'll do, Jack," said the former, "If you will go in I'll agree to pitch both games and will beat those Colonels if hard work counts."

"I'll go you," said Jack, and he made a bee-line for the hospital to have his crip-pled fingers treated.

Joe Corbett will play short in at least one of the games, and probably in both.

SORE AT BOSWELL Manager Schmeiz was considerably work ed up this morning over the conduct of Bos-"He promised faithfully to be here of Monday," said the manager, "but didn't come, wiring that he would surely be here on Thursday. When that time rolled around Boswell again failed to turn up, and nothing has been seen or heard of him since, and now he don't need to trouble himself about coming. We don't want him. In my judgment, Giiroy is a better pitcher than Bos well, and we can utilize him."

Schiebeck is on his feet to-day, but there is little prospect of his getting into the game soon. Tom Brown's finger was not hurt as badly as it looked to be yesterday and, barring a little stiffness, will be all right for work this afternoon

SCHMELZ IS HOPEFUL

Manager Schmelz thinks the Senators have a pretty good show to move up a few pegs in percentage to-day and Monday. It is looked upon as a foregone conclusion that Baltimore will beat the Browns, and there is a good chance for the Senators to beat the Colonels, notwithstanding their badly broken up condition. On Monday-Labor Day-Baltimore and St. Louis will play two games. If the weather is good, the Senators and onels will also play two games on Monday, and on Tuesday the same clubs are duled for another double header. Jim McGuire, it will thus be seen, has a pretty healthy looking job before him, but Jim is an untiring and game worker, and he will not be found wanting when his task

Baltimore, Aug. 31.-George W. Burnbam, who resigned last night as an um-pire of the National League, will leave for Chicago to-night, where he will in the future give his undivided attention to his three boot-blacking parlors. "I am free now to talk of the national game and umpiring," said Mr. Burnham. "I want to say that the double-umpire system is the best that could be devised if the umpires are sustained by the magnates. The latter lay down rules, and then when a decision is rendered against their chub they are the first to kick. So long as this continues the umpires position will be an underirable one. He must be upheld. "In my short service on the staff I have had trouble in Boston and Brooklyn. When I sent Tommy Tucker to beach, Conant held up his hands in holy horror, and told me such a thing had never been heard of before Then, in Brooklyn, when I rerved Manager McClockey, who was on the coach line, in the same way for offensive criticism, and followed it up by taking McDermott out of the box, there was a big howl. "An umpire must be firm and never change a decision. If he does so be commits professional suicide. In the umpir business a man has more chances to make mistakes than in any other work I know of, yet he must never admit he's in the wrong. Speaking of the Baltimore club. Mr. Burnham said: "They should win the pennant now with comparative ease. Han-lon is the greatest manager I've ever seen, and I've run across a few in my time. He's

They were not as numerous then as they are now. You can find them by the score everywhere these days, and any sort of pay for their services is eagerly grabbed at. "It s only the best of them who are wanted by good clubs now, and at that the mone; hung up is not what it was a few years ago. About five years back I held an engagement bere at Kernan's. I was meeting all comers, and mysalary was $500 a week That was but one of many jobs of the same sort that I held during my earlier boxing days."

Joe Lyons, who stated through The Times yesterday that he was ready to meet any of the boxers here at 133 pounds, is a cleareyed, healthy-looking young fellow, who acts and talks as though be meant just what he said, and it is not improbable that if be is given a chance be will render a good account of himself. Lyons is built on the racehorse order, though he is apparently well knit and strong. He looks as though but little work would be needed to put him in good fix.

There was talk around the Eureka Club peadquarters yesterday about a finish go between Jack Daly and Mike Leonard. Th latter was seen at Kernan's during the afternoon and expressed willingness neet the Wilmington man in such a bout. There was also talk about a match being fixed up between Daly and Hite Peckham but it is hardly likely that this will come to

The report was spread around town yes terday that Eugene Kernan, manager of the Lycenm Theater, who declared after the Leonard-Connors melee on Wednesday night that he would have no more such affairs in his house, had relented, and that Leonard would meet Howard Wilson again last night, and Jack Daly to-night After ort had been published a Times man that he had not changed his mind, and that be would not change it. He had quite a sufficiency of the boxing business, he said, and would have no more of it in his bouse.

District Marksmen Depart for the Sea Girt Shoot

MAKE-UP OF THE TEAMS

Many Ladtes and Officers Also Leave to Cheer the Cracks to Victory Some of the Teams They Will Meet in the Various Shoots-Our Boys All Seem Confident of Success-

The brigade and regimental teams of the National Guard left for Sea Girt over the Pennsylvania Railroad at noon to-day to enter into competition with the crack narksmen of the country at the big shoot. The greatest interest is naturally cenered in the contest for the Hilton trophy. which is open to teams of twelve men from he Regular Army, Navy, National Guard or team of any foreign country. The prize for this contest is a large bronze soldier of Marathon, valued at $350, and a medal to each member of the winning team. The trophy is now held by New Jersey.

The District captured it, however, in 893, and the members of the team have the utmost confidence in their ability to recapture the prize at the present shoot and once more place the District before the country as having the finest team of marksmen in the land. Next in importance comes the regiments team match, open to teams of six from the regimental, battalion and separate company organizations of the Regular Army or National Guard. This match has also been won by the District marksmen on two occasions, and they will make a strong effort is year at Sea Girt to once more defeat their rivals. Besides the foregoing, there are a great many in dividual matches to be shot, the dates of which are not yet known.

The District men look upon Pennsyl-vania's team as being their most formidable competitors, as the rifleman from that State have been in constant practice since the 1st of May.
